

Statement of expectations concerning submission of vocabularies and associated metadata to the ARDC vocabulary service (Research Vocabularies Australia - RVA)

In your organisation's use of RVA as a vocabulary publishing and discovery service, ARDC expects that you will:

- provide metadata describing the vocabulary
- ensure the quality, accuracy, and currency of the vocabulary and its metadata
- be authorised to provide the vocabulary and its metadata and undertake that your submission does not infringe the intellectual property of others
- provide vocabularies and metadata which may be of interest to research
- accept that ARDC allows third parties to re-use and download the vocabulary and its metadata from RVA and to use and publish it in their services

You may expect that ARDC will:

- endeavour to provide discovery and access services to publicise and promote use of your vocabulary (and refer users to your service)
- publish the vocabulary metadata in the RVA portal and make publicly available the vocabulary files through services and interfaces
- enable third parties to download and/or re-use the vocabulary and its metadata from RVA and to use and publish it in their services
